Rules:

- Students should wear a tidy school uniform everyday with properly-cleaned school shoes. For untidiness or not being in school uniform, administration has the right to impose fine or to send the student-in-question back to his home.
- The Principal is the senior-most authority in school and, therefore, his decision will be considered as final decision in every academic/disciplinary action.
- Hence, students and parents are expected to comply.
- Mischievous, rebellious, discriminatory or disorderly behaviours are not acceptable against fellow students, teachers, staff or administration. Such situations can result in suspension or expulsion of the student-in-question.
- Deliberate negligence, un-engagement in class activities or continuous low performance in school assignments / quizzes / exams will be enough justification for expulsion of student-in-question.
- Continuous and uninformed absence will result in struck-off of the student's name from attendance/administration files.
- Stealing and damaging school belongings can result in fine along with suspension or expulsion of the student-in-question. Learning Bridge should be notified in writing by parents one month prior to decisions of school leaving.
- School Leaving Certificate will only be granted after the dues/fines are paid.

Fees Rules:

- The due date of fee will not be delayed by school administration in any case and a fine of Rs 10/day will be imposed on late submissions.
- In case the fee is not submitted by the 15th of the month, administration has the right to remove the student's name from attendance lists or any other official documentation.
 - Readmission fee of Rs 4000 will be charged along with previously payable fines and tuition fee.
- Fee, once deposited, will not be refundable in any case.
- School reserves the right to increase tuition fee at any time in response to inflation
- School reserves the right to cancel any kind of grant/discount/scholarship at any time as it deems fit.
- School administration reserves the right to formulate new or discard old policies.

*I have read all the terms, conditions and rules defined above which might be subjected by school administration upon my son/daughter and agree to abide by these conditions.
